

The Southern Enterprise GREENVILLE, S. C. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1870.

THE ENTERPRISE.

Enlargement on the 9th February - New Heading - A Double Circulation.

Next week, which will be the 9th February, we expect to appear before our readers in an enlarged and otherwise improved form.

To Advertisers. On the same date, we will issue a Double Circulation, for gratuitous distribution in Greenville, sending also to the contiguous post offices in the adjoining Counties of Anderson, Pickens, Spartanburg, and York.

The School Bill.

The School Bill before the Legislature of this State, has some very good provisions and some very objectionable. The control of the education of the children of the State is, by the provisions of the Bill, indirectly vested in the Governor, and the people will have no influence or power over the teachers of their children.

Legislative Proceedings. We refer the reader to the letter of J. B. H. for an interesting account of legislative doings. We thank our correspondent for his continued favors.

The Williamston Hotel was recently sold by the Assignee of the Estate of JOHN W. GRANT, Bankrupt, for $200,000, on six months time, and was purchased by a number of Greenville gentlemen, Capt. SAMUEL STRADLEY and others.

The Redville Schools. We are authorized by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Redville High Schools to say that both their Schools will commence as usual on the first Monday in February instant, with a full corps of competent teachers.

Personal. We had a call the other day, from Mr. ROBERT M. STOKES, an old follower of the Press, and who has for the past three years been connected with the Asheville (N. C.) News, which he has conducted in a superior manner.

Removal. Mr. W. H. CAMMER, Gunsmith and Machinist, has removed from his old stand on Main Street to a more commodious one in rear of Old Court House - the place formerly occupied by the late J. H. RAYBOLD as jeweler.

The Old Guard. A Monthly Devoted to Literature, Science and Art, and the Political Principles of 1776 and 1860.

We have received the January No. 1, of Vol. 8 of this valuable magazine, with its very interesting contents. It is published in New York by VAN EXTER, HORTON & CO., No. 162 Nassau Street, at $5; single deductions for clubs, from two to twenty.

Columbia Correspondence Southern Enterprise. Death of Judge Boozer - Air Line Railroad - South Carolina Western Railroad - Educational Bill - Medical Assistance for the Poor - Salaries of Judges - Code of Practice - Election for Associate Justice - Titles of some Acts that have passed and been Confirmed.

COLUMBIA, S. C., January 31st, 1870. Messrs. Editors - On Monday, the 24th inst., the death of Judge Boozer was announced in the House, and after adopting resolutions of sympathy and respect, the House adjourned to escort his remains to the depot. In this sad duty, mingled more of all political creeds, anxious to pay their respect to the memory and worth of an honest and upright citizen.

The Wando. We have received a pamphlet of the Wando Mining and Manufacturing Company, containing advertisements of the Wando Fertilizer, of which Mr. JULIUS C. SMITH, of this City, is agent, and of whom a copy can be obtained.

Cotton Stealing. A bale of cotton belonging to Mr. PULLMAN HURF, of this County, which was lying in the wagon yard of Messrs. MILLS & McDONNELL, was stolen on night last week. The thief was named Perry Hodges, was arrested on Saturday by Sheriff VICKERS, and committed to jail, several others are supposed to be implicated. The cotton was carried a mile or two up the Buncombe road and the bale divided amongst the rogues' party if it only has been recovered.

Dr. W. H. TORR & LANN. - The enterprise of this celebrated House of Agents, shows what the South, and where men can achieve. Nothing has been so said in the way of compliment that these gentlemen do not deserve. We take the following from a Northern source - the Washington Chronicle:

On a recent visit to Augusta, Ga., we had the pleasure of visiting the Wholesale Drug House of Messrs. Wm. H. Torr & Lann, who had no idea that there was such a house in the South. In fact, it has few equals in the country. It is a perfect gem, and also a perfect laboratory. Their Laboratory, which occupies the second floor of the adjoining building, is very complete. Here we found a busy crowd of men and women, preparing the celebrated Liver Pills, Improved Hair Dye, Expecto-cure, and Sarsaparilla, and Queen's Delight for shipment. We were told that at the time they were behind their orders nearly three weeks. We could scarcely credit it, but we saw in full operation a single work without interruption, and we saw the bottles and boxes of the pills, which were made and ready for the box. These preparations are now sold almost every town and village in the South and West. Success, say we, to Southern enterprise. - The Morning Chronicle.

Virginia Admission.

After a long struggle, and the addition of a new State to the Union, the Constitution, the State has been admitted into the Union. Virginia complied with the reconstruction laws, and kept faith with Congress; but the people majority did not keep faith with her. It is said that the negro population is fast leaving the State, so that those clauses relative to that population will prove less cumbersome than in states farther south.

A Wind Storm. On Monday afternoon, this section was visited with a violent storm of wind from the West. Little or no rain attended. There was no damage of any consequence experienced in this immediate neighborhood, but we learn that in the vicinity of Chick's Springs, trees were uprooted and felling blown down. The storm prevailed everywhere also in the Fairview neighborhood.

The Bill to Punish Bribery. The present Legislature has done a good thing in passing a bill to punish bribery and corruption in public officers or representatives; both the offerer and receiver of a bribe are liable to the penalty as well as fine. The law will be a terror to lobbyists and those seduced by them, and is calculated to purify the fountain of law and justice. We expect to publish the act next week.

South Carolina Monumental Association.

This Association has for its object the building of a Monument to the City of Columbia, in honor of the South Carolina soldiers who fell in the service of the Confederate States.

All women of South Carolina may become members of this Association by contributing their names, and by contributing the sum of twenty-five cents.

The Committee for Greenville County, will be fully organized as soon as possible, when public notice will be given.

Women of South Carolina, there stands no urgent appeal to your sympathies in a cause so sacred as that which we now undertake. The great tide of adversity which sweeps over our unhappy land, has lifted the South Carolina soldier to the front, and he is now fighting for the glory of his country, and the rights of his race.

With the wish that all who have shared in a common sorrow may share also in the privilege of raising this memorial to our lost heroes, the annual subscription for the monument is now open.
